Overview: Nitish is a dispute resolution lawyer with over 14 years of experience, with a core focus on commercial litigation, arbitration, and insolvency law. He advises and represents clients across a range of contentious matters before courts, tribunals, and arbitral forums in India.

Nitish's practice spans a diverse spectrum of disputes—ranging from complex contractual and shareholder issues to real estate, regulatory, and financial restructuring matters. He regularly appears before the Supreme Court of India, various High Courts, District Courts, the NCLT/NCLAT, and real estate regulatory authorities. He also represents clients in institutional and ad hoc arbitrations governed by domestic and international rules.

He is recognised for his structured and practical approach to litigation strategy, deep knowledge of procedural law, and ability to navigate disputes involving multi-party commercial arrangements.

Nitish graduated from the National Law Institute University (NLIU), Bhopal, in 2011 and has been actively involved in developing the Firm's dispute resolution practice. He is also committed to mentoring younger lawyers and contributes to strategic knowledge-building initiatives within the Firm.
