Overview:

In his experience of over a decade, Snigdhaneeel has advised several global corporations on appropriate strategies in relation to investments in India and domestic & multinational clients on significant & complex corporate matters, including cross border Mergers & Acquisitions, Joint Ventures, and Private Equity transactions. His unique mix of experience ranges not just on the transactional side, but also on complex regulatory issues particularly from the perspective of foreign exchange laws, fintech laws, Defence laws, gaming laws, securities laws and telecom laws.

He has an in-depth experience with industry-specific legal & regulatory issues in sectors including Defence, Retail, Real Estate, Telecommunications, Gaming, Hospitals, Foreign Contribution, Education, Mutual Funds, e-commerce and the Financial sector (Banking & Non-Banking). Some of his marquee transactions include the merger of Ranbaxy with Sun Pharma valued at USD 3.2 billion (largest M&A deal in the Indian Pharma sector), Tencent investment in Swiggy, Carlyle investments in various pharma platforms and the TATA-Boeing Joint Venture (largest M&A in the defence sector).

As a transactional lawyer with extensive regulatory experience, Snigdhaneeel has featured in several of India's most prominent conferences, workshops, and panel discussions, having been invited to speak at the same.

Some prominent conferences where Snigdhaneeel has spoken over the course of the past year include the (a) India Mobile Congress on regulatory issues on emerging technologies and e-vehicles, (b) SPICE India Gaming Conference on M&A in the gaming sector and (c) Conference on Corporate Law and Governance on cross border mergers and acquisitions.

Aside from the above, he is also committed to improving the broader regulatory framework in India. As a leading advisory lawyer on issues related to FDI, exchange control, securities laws, and the defence sector, he devotes substantial time to working with the Government and Regulatory Authorities pro bono on policy issues.

Specifically, over the last year, he has worked closely with the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (Ministry of Commerce, Government of India) to undertake policy changes in relation to FDI laws, as well as being invited to present his views on issues of round tripping to the High Level Advisory Group constituted by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India with the report on the same being published last year.

He is also a much sought-after commentator on emerging legal issues in India, particularly on FDI and exchange control issues frequently contributes articles to major journals. Being interested in training the next generation lawyers he is regularly invited to various premier law schools across to country to deliver lectures on corporate commercial laws.
